Eleven-time Emmy Award winning Visionalist Entertainment Productions was established in 1997 by Executive Producer/Director Keith Famie who created a series of adventurous cooking shows in exotic locations around the globe for his series on the Food Network Keith Famie's Adventures.

Since these early years, Famie and his VEP team have produced a wide range of primetime programs ranging from an all guys trip to Russia with the Detroit Red Wings alumni team, to the touching series, "Our Story Of" about immigrants coming to America.

In 2013, Famie introduced the first in a series of films that focused on men and women as we age. "The Embrace of Aging" is a multi-episode series that debuted on Detroit Public Television. On Veterans Day 2017, DPTV will premiere the two-hour documentary about enlisting in the military titled ENLISTED.

Visionalist Entertainment Productions was selected for the 2015 Diamond Award by the Association for Women in Communications Detroit Chapter. In 2017, Keith Famie was awarded the Media Award by the Gilda's Club of Metro Detroit.

In production for 2017 is the documentary "On the Front Lines of Alzheimer's," set to be completed in Spring 2018.
