Dear Mr. Famie

Congratulations! You have been selected for the 2015 Diamond Award by the Association for Women in Communications Detroit Chapter. This prestigious award honors an individual or organization for either improving conditions for women in the workplace or providing advancement for women in overall society. Your documentary Embrace of Aging - Female Perspective on Growing Old definitely does the latter and it goes a long way to provide information and support to women.

This award will be presented at our annual Matrix Awards on Thursday, May 14, 2015. The program begins with registration and networking at 5:30 p.m. at The Community House in Birmingham, MI. You will have a brief opportunity to acknowledge receipt of the award (5 minutes) and you also may bring items to distribute to attendees (80-100 expected) or place on a display table. Please let us know if you have electrical needs.

As an honoree, you receive two complimentary tickets to the event - one for yourself and one for a guest. These tickets will be held at the door, but please let us know who will be your guest by contacting our administrative office at (866) 385-1784 or info@womcomdetroit.org by April 30th. At that time you may notify us on whether you want a display table and/or bringing items to be distributed to guests.

Additional tickets cost $55 for AWC members, $65 for nonmembers and $40 for students. Reservations can be made online at <http://womcomdetroit.org>. Information regarding sponsorship and silent auction opportunities are also enclosed.

This festive evening – celebration our 77 years of existence - will include honoring our legacy members, a silent auction, dinner and presentation of three awards: the Headliner, the Vanguard and the Diamond. We will conclude with our keynote speaker, Denise Ilitch, President, Ilitch Enterprises, Inc.

If you have any questions, please contact Jane Miller in our administration office at (866) 385-1784 or at info@womcomdetroit.org. We look forward to seeing you on May 14th.

Sincerely,

Laura Oliveto
President
